

Above and Below: Girls finally win the battle of the sexes. Linden Homes Thames Valley entered an all boys and an all girls team into the Eton Excelsior Rowing Club Regatta to determine once and for all who the superior sex is. The Jackson 5 and the Spice Girls both put up a spectacular fight but ultimately girl power came out on top. Better luck next year lads.

YOUR PICS

GET SEEN IN TOTALLY!

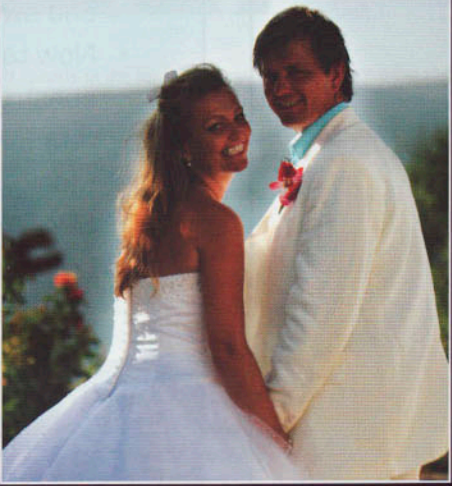

Have you got a picture that you would like our readers to see? If so, send it to Totally. All you need is a JPEG of at least one megabyte and a bit of info that tells the story. Send them to anthony.smith@totallymedia.net

Above: Toby Smith of St Giles Furniture presenting a cheque for £4,069 to Marie Daley, Fundraising Officer of the NACC.

Gary Fielder, a bereavement counsellor for Thames Hospice Care, recently celebrated his 50th birthday with a black tie ball at the Old Windsor Club. Gary's wife Charlotte and daughter Lizzie would like to wish Gary many happy returns, and come to think of it so would we: Happy Birthday Gary!

Felicitaciones (That's congratulations in Spanish) Danielle and Lee got married in Spain last month and are having a reception at Harleyford Golf Club when they get back from their honeymoon. Check out their party in next month's Totally Society Marlow edition.

It's not ye olden days, it's a reenactment. Cliveden House recently held its ever popular National Trust's Blast from the Past weekend. Apparently it was a blast.